INFORMATION TO ACCOMPANY PPSR REGISTRATION WHERE DEBTOR IS AN ORGANISATION

1 a) For those acting on behalf of the secured party (i.e. Solicitor acting for a Secured Party client).

We strongly advise you utilise the address of the secured party, as this is the address where debtor change demands and communications from the PPSR will be sent. You can however utilise your address details, for you to forward the information to the secured party. Should you wish to utilise our address details, for us to forward the communications from PPSR direct to you (not the secured party) type "landinfo" in the spaces provided.

Please ensure you continue to advise of any address or contact maintenance to enable the Register to be maintained with current information.

1 b) For Secured Parties wishing us to register direct onto the PPSR on their behalf. (N.B. we recommend you seek independent legal advice)

We strongly advise you to utilise your address details, as this is the address where debtor change demands and communications from the PPSR will be sent. Should you wish to utilise our address details, for us to forward the communications from PPSR direct to you type "landinfo" in the spaces provided.

Please ensure you continue to advise of any address or contact maintenance to enable the Register to be maintained with current information.

2) If the secured party is an organisation the PPSR require an individual acting on behalf of the secured party for the PPSR to forward correspondence and change demands notices direct. This will over ride the contact details where the secured party is an organisation.
